TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Volunteers at the Capitol are preparing to hang over 100,000 paper cut-outs of children's hands.

The event, happening Sunday, is called the "Hanging of the Hands."

The cut-outs were decorated by children and their teachers and will be hung at the Capitol Rotunda.

Organizers say the paper hands remind legislatures and advocates that they must take care of our most precious commodity, the children.

Volunteers will be hanging the paper hands from 12:30 – 4 p.m.

The cut-outs will remain in the Capitol Rotunda for an entire week.
